Ted bundled up and went outside with his shovel. After the big storm yesterday, this chore was bound to take a very long time. Several inches of snow covered the driveway and the sidewalks. Ted sighed and started shoveling. Ted's friend Mia walked up with her own shovel. "Need a hand?" offered Mia. Ted smiled gratefully. "Sure," said Ted. They got the work done twice as fast because they worked together. Ted would be sure to return the favor next time.
